

MORNING APPEAL.

Thursday.....September 22 1886

The Chesnut Bell

For several months past in the East, practical jokers, smart alecks and duds have inflicted upon the suffering people a nuisance in the shape of a "chesnut gong," a little instrument which is attached to the vest. By touching a small spring the gong makes a peculiar noise, which is very annoying. Most young men take delight in ringing the gong whenever they hear an old story or song, in all places and under all circumstances. When ever a story is told in company it is probable that there is someone present who has heard it before, but good manners prevent him from jumping up and yelling "chesnut" for it is likely that there are many there who have never heard it. But this is the time the smart young man gets in his deadly work. His little gong is a greater nuisance than the stale story. The little instrument has finally been declared a nuisance, and frequent arrests have been made for springing it in public places. The gong has at last found its way to the Pacific coast, and many young men, apeing those in the East, are wearing the little brass machine. Its annoying tones are always heard on the street corners, in the saloons and in all public gatherings and it is more grating to the ears than the continual yelling of the "hokey-pokey" or the hot corn fiend. The people of Sacramento are in for a siege that is going to be more troublesome than an epidemic of measles.—Sacramento Bee.

Badly Fooled.

A good story concerning a well known character of Eureka leaked out yesterday. For several days past the town has been flooded with advertisements of a patent medicine that were in size, and on one side good representatives of Confederate money of several denominations. It appears that the character referred to while coming to town from down the E.P. railroad on an afternoon train, while sitting on a flat car viewing the country, saw one of the advertisements lying alongside the railroad track. Believing it to be a U. S. Treasury note, he jumped from the running car, grabbed the note, and came within an ace of getting left on the desert. Imagine his chagrin upon boarding the train to find the note a pill advertisement.—Sentinel.

Indemnification Wanted.

Our Minister is now demanding from the Chinese Government, $7,000 for damages done to American property when the Chinese mob drove Mr. Fulton and his wife and sister from Kwai Pang and burned their homes and furniture and maltreated them. Suppose, says the Record Union, an American mob had thus used Chinese in California, what a pow wow the Eastern press would make over it to be sure; but the Eastern papers are strangely emphatic over the Fulton outrage.

—Every day at 1 o'clock $300,000,000 sit around a little mahogany table in an upper room in the Western Union building in New York and eat a plain but substantial lunch. The millions belong to Jay, Gould, Sidney Dillon, Russell Sage and ex-Governor Alonzo B. Cornell. All were country boys, and wore shoes only on Sunday. Mr. Gould and Mr. Sage got their ideas of finance in village stores, and Mr. Dillon and Governor Cornell were day laborers and thanked heaven when they trudged home with $6 in their trousers pockets on Saturday nights.

—A Comstocker has invented a fire screen, the object of which invention is to prevent the spreading of fires in great cities. It is a broad netting of iron wire which is carried on trucks and run up on proper appliances in such a way as to cut off the flames from a burning building. It operates on the same principle as the Davy safety lamp.

—The Kewler sisters, of Paradise Valley, who provoked so much enthusiasm by their daring and skillful horsemanship at the Sacramento Fair, very generously donated their prizes—$75—to Mrs. Sumner, a widow residing in Sacramento.
